The South Carolina Conference records its great satisfaction at the progress of Claflin College, noted in the hundred per cent increase in college enrollment in the past three years, and its present enrollment of 637 students for the scholastic year, 1925-26.

With the progress in student attendance and a physical plant worth approximately $400,000.00 entirely free of debt, and an endowment of $131,000.00 makes possible a future of the brightest kind for the institution.

The guarantee of the progress of the institution in the future depends upon funds for reasonable expansion and endowment.

Therefore, be it Resolved, That the South Carolina Conference thereby resolves to inaugurate an Expansion and Endowment Campaign for Claflin College covering the next five years for $250,000.00.

That this campaign be begun at once in connection with the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church;

That the campaign be committed to the trustees of the in-

RESOLUTIONS:

Whereas, Dr. J. W. Moultrie has handled the cause of Pension and Relief with diligence, enthusiasm, and efficiency, resulting in the raising of $———, the same being the largest amount ever raised by one Conference for said cause; we deem him and the cooperating pastors worthy of very high commendation for this notable achievement; and

Whereas, by his former association and labors with us he has greatly endeared himself and family to us; therefore,

Be it Resolved, That we receive with mingled feelings of sadness and gladness information touching his transfer to Daytona, Fla.

We are sad because of the taking away of a worthy asset to our Conference; but we are glad that he has so won episcopal esteem as to be thought worthy of so eminent a place in another prominent conference.

We, therefore, felicitate Dr. Moultrie and his excellent family and commend them to the friendly cooperation of the people among whom their lot may be cast, and we will continue to pray God's richest blessings upon them.

Respectfully submitted,

A. G. TOWNSEND,
A. R. HOWARD,
M. M. MOUZON.

Mr. President and Brethren of the South Carolina Conference:

Whereas, there is an inequality in the size and strength of the Eight Districts of our Conference;

And Whereas, This inequality is seen and felt not only in the benevolences, but in the support given the District Superintendents;

And, whereas, this difference is felt more keenly since our good Bishop E. G. Richardson has offered a prize to the District making the largest gain;

Therefore, Be it Resolved, That a commission of seventeen (17) composed of the eight District Superintendents and one pastor from each District and one at large be appointed to meet between now and the next Annual Conference and equalize the Districts, and report same to our next Annual Conference, and the Bishop, for confirmation.

Respectfully,

Respectfully submitted,

A. G. TOWNSEND,

Conference Treasurer $2,000.00.

Conference Board of Stewards $1,000.00.

Dear Bishop, Fathers and Brethren:

Whereas on yesterday two conflicting statements touching the relation Dr. L. M. Dunton desired were made on this Conference floor;

And whereas, the matter was taken up by the Board of Conference Stewards, and after discussion, the writer was appointed to interview Dr. Dunton on the subject, which was done. I discovered grounds for both of the conflicting statements.

Therefore, Be it Resolved:

First: That because of his long and useful service in helping to mold, shape and make this Conference what it is, and his untiring labors in the interest of Claflin College and the great interest he is now taking in the uplift of our young people;

Be it Further Resolved:

Second, That it is the sense of this Conference without a dissenting voice, that his relation to this Conference remain effective, and our good Bishop be requested to reappoint him President Emeritus of Claflin College, and Conference Evangelist.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

C. R. BROWN.

Appreciation to Dr. L. M. Dunton and Mrs. Mary E. Dunton.

This handsome couple, and honored pair have written their distinguished cognomen on the summit of Methodism and into the deep heart of the Negro race.

When our temporal, financial, educational, and moral needs were varied, great, and grave, these powerful, and accomplished teachers and preachers descended from the North and matriculated into our interest, sympathy, and life. Quite over a half hundred years have they been here. They taught us. They preached to us. They counselled us. They worked for us. They suffered for us. They sacrificed for us. Like the immaculate Lamb, they gave their precious service and being for our progress, achievement and salvation. Today, beautiful years adorn their temples, and crown their pates. Ripe in the vicissitude of experience, and rich in secular and divine wisdom, they still abide and labor with and for us. From the uncrowned successful President and preceptress of Claflin University, to the honored President Emeritus and agent of the same. From the faithful pastor and helper of the South Carolina Conference to the matchless Young Peoples' Evangelist and Organizer of the same. These amiable and stable leaders, with slight exception, were the unrelenting and indefatigable pioneers of our Ministry and education South.

Today in Conference assemblage we pause to pay homage to their ideal memory, shower applauses upon their fragrant character, and pronounce benediction upon their indispensable, valuable and righteous lives.

We solidly desire them ever to know that we are forever indebted and grateful to them. Their memory will be cherished in our feeling as long as Claflin, Methodism and the South Carolina Conference survive.

As the Bishop appointed them to another year of steady, hard and extensive work, and as they go forward with their usual hope, zeal, knowledge and Christ spirit, taking the same chances and fares with us in the Conference, our earnest thoughts, and sincere prayers will follow, animate and comfort them.

We further implore God that as they continue their unselfish toil, and life among us, forgetful of their strength and approaching setting sun, their days will be abundant, sunny and tranquil, and when their pure lives will have been consumed in lifting, teaching and loving others here, they shall hear His ravishing voice, "Well done, enter into the joys of thy Lord."

G. W. COOPER,
J. P. ROBINSON,
JOHN C. GIBBS,

Committee.

Whereas, We have been highly entertained by the pastor, members, officers and friends of John Wesley Methodist Episcopal Church, Greenville, S. C.;

And, Whereas, We shall ever remember the hospitality shown us by them, and whereas, the several railroad companies have favored us with reduced rates for which we are grateful, and whereas, we have noticed the faithfulness of our Secretary and his assistants, and whereas, we are greatly benefited, and inspired by the great lecture of our beloved Bishop, E. G. Richardson, on his trip to Europe, and the very impressive eloquent and forceful manner in which Drs. J. W. E. Bowen, Lovejoy, Hughs, McMorris, McAliston, I. G. Penn, J. B. Randolph, Mrs. Randolph Pearson and the Claflin singers for service rendered, and whereas, we have noticed the willingness on the part of S. M. Miller, our Statistician for service rendered; and J. C. Martin, our Treasurer and their assistants to accomplish the very important task assigned them, and also the various committees.

Therefore Be it Resolved: First, That we thank God for His blessings towards us and His ever abiding presence with us in this session; Resolved Second, That we tender our sincere thanks to the pastor, members and friends of John Wesley Methodist Episcopal Church, who have so kindly entertained us; Resolved Third, That we thank the various railroad companies for the kindness extended us; Resolved Fourth, That we thank the Secretaries, Statistician, Treasurer, their assistants and all committees for their service. Resolved Fifth, That we extend heartfelt thanks to our beloved Bishop, E. G. Richardson, Dr. Bowen, Penn, Houghs, McMorris, McAliston, Lovejoy Randolph Pearson, Wilson, Miss Helen Rusby for their timely addresses. Resolved Six That we thank Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Moultrie, who have labored so successfully among us, and that our prayers be that the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob be their God and bless them in their new field of labor. Last but not least, Dr. and Mrs. L. M. Dunton for their life-long service and their gifts to various causes of the church, especially Claflin College, and we pray God's choicest blessings upon them in their efforts.

Respectfully submitted,

A. H. HAYES, Chmn.

I. C. WILEY,

For the Committee.

WORLD SERVICE.

The World Service program of the Church calls for sacrifice and means on the part of all the Departments of Methodism.

We regret very much the deficiency in the reports of 1925, and as a result the great South Carolina Conference now stands at the foot of the other Colored Conferences.

In order for these results to be changed every pastor and layman of our Conference must put their shoulders to the wheel and ascend to the top by May 31, 1926.

Resolved (1) That there shall be inaugurated on every charge a system of regular Sabbath givings;

Resolved (2) That we cheerfully accept our quotas for 1926, and do our very best to raise every dollar.

Resolved (3) That we continue to make our Claflin rally day in October of each year a financial success.

Resolved (4) That all World Service collections be sent to O. W. Ammon, Treasurer, 740 Rush Street, Chicago, monthly, regardless to how small the amount may be.
